THE NEXT EVOLUTION OF OUR FAMILY OF COMPANIES.

We are a collective of companies focused on development, acquisition and property management.

In the spirit of one of author Alexander Dumas' most enduring characters, Edmond Dantes and Abbe Faria, we trust that when you work with us, you'll find that we are unabashed dreamers and precise doers. We help you make sense of your real estate development and management problems; we creatively map-out solutions out of seemingly unconquerable odds; we gravitate towards complex deals most development firms would turn down. We specialize in making the impossible possible. We used this inspiration to name our new parent company.

*“How did I escape? With difficulty.
How did I plan this moment? With pleasure.”*

Luxury Affordable Housing®

MISSION

Dantes Partners' goal is to facilitate and enhance local urban economic development by designing and structuring innovative funding and financing solutions for affordable, workforce, and mixed-income housing and community-based real estate initiatives.

Our success is driven both by our technical expertise and our ability to extract value in even the most complex transactions. As such, we are extremely attentive to budgets, timelines and milestones, and are well-versed in the current state of the capital markets. Moreover, our experience in working with all available capital sources to creatively finance a diversity of projects - which include affordable/workforce housing, office buildings and charter school facilities - positions us as leaders in the future of the alternative financing landscape.

More working people in housing they can afford, makes for stronger cities and communities.

ABOUT US

Dumas Collective® is a real estate and social impact conglomerate. Dumas Collective is the holdings company of Dantes Partners, Faria Management, Dantes Community Partners and No.07 Consultants. It started as a development firm in 2006 under the Dantes Partners brand and expanded to property, investment, and construction management. The firm operates across the Mid-Atlantic region with offices in Washington, DC, New York, and Florida.

A vertically integrated and diversified industry leader, Dumas Collective's real estate development arm, Dantes Partners, utilizes unconventional financial approaches to develop Luxury Affordable Housing™ in some of America's rapidly growing cities with exponential demands. Dantes Partners is the chief expert in affordable and workforce housing development and financing.

To date, Dantes Partners has financed, developed, and acquired over 8,000 units with a financing and investment value of $2.3 billion dollars. Dumas Collective's growing portfolio entails over 3,300 units under management and leverages extensive expertise in the real estate industry to provide external consulting services for public-private partnerships.

EXPERIENCE BY THE NUMBERS

PRODUCTS & SERVICES

ADVISORY SERVICES

Dantes Partners prides itself on using a myriad of financing sources to creatively determine the highest and best use for a site be it for repositioning, rehabilitation, or infill development. Dantes pursues housing and mixed-use projects in emerging or transitional neighborhoods with favorable economic and demographic trends. Dantes embarks on real estate projects individually or through joint ventures. In all cases, Dantes looks to maximize utilization and maximize profitability.

Luxury Workforce and Affordable Housing Financing

Our team has extensive experience in analyzing and structuring financing for mixed-income residential projects with significant affordable housing requirements. We have found creative financing solutions for projects in the form of tax credits (historic, low-income housing, new markets and renewable energy investment), the creation of public-private joint ventures, and other approaches. Similarly, our team will exhaust all efforts to identify alternative financing sources as well as aim to minimize financing costs and risks to our clients.

Pro Forma Analyses and Modeling

In analyzing project financial feasibility, our team will measure the viability of the development options proposed. Our team has developed many dynamic, adaptable models in the past and maintains the capability to prepare our own customized models as a basis for negotiations. We will consider multiple financing, ownership, and transaction structures to determine the scenarios that are most advantageous given the existing market conditions.

Transaction Services

Our team has substantial experience representing the interests of landlords/tenants, buyers/sellers, borrowers/lenders, and we seek to leverage our experience in these areas for the benefit of our clients.

REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

Dantes Partners has consulted for a wide variety of clients to coordinate with parties from design and financial teams to program sites from vacant parcels to stabilized buildings. Over the past 15 years, Dantes Partners has grown exponentially to provide consulting services in the areas of public/private deal structuring and negotiations, predevelopment planning and oversight, community outreach, market analysis, project and asset management, debt/equity underwriting, and portfolio due diligence. Our clients include corporations, government entities, non-profit organizations and individual land-owners.

We're honored to play a major role in meeting a growing, fundamental need in our communities.

Dantes Partners, in strategic partnership with Eastbanc, Inc., was selected by the District of Columbia's Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development (DMPED) to redevelop the West End Library and West End Fire Station sites as part of a bold public-private revitalization effort.

The result: a transformational, transit-oriented, mixed-use community in the heart of DC's West End. The Square 50 redevelopment features 55 units of much-needed affordable and workforce housing thoughtfully built above Squash On Fire, DC's premier high-end squash facility open to the public. The development also includes Upper West Side Café and a brand-new, state-of-the-art fire station, creating a true vertical mixed-use innovation. Dantes Partners played a pivotal role in structuring and securing the financing for the residential portion of the project. The financing stack included 4% Low-Income Housing Tax Credit equity, tax-exempt bonds, and gap financing — a model example of creative financing and equitable housing delivery in a high-cost submarket.

SQ50's residential offering includes studios, one-, and two-bedroom apartment homes with spacious layouts, modern design finishes, energy-efficient features, and abundant natural light providing dignified, high-quality living in one of the most sought-after neighborhoods in Washington, DC.

Key Facts

- 37 Units
- $5 M Total Development Cost
- Completed 2013
- Financed with Conventional Debt and Subordinate Debt
- For Sale Condominium with Market Rate & Affordable Units at 60% AMI

Dantes Partners and The Menkiti group partnered to win the District of Columbia's solicitation for proposals for the acquisition and development of a 37 unit for- sale multifamily property. Built in 1938 and abandoned for over 40 years, the existing building was derelict and in need of substantial renovation. This $5,000,000 transaction utilized Conventional Debt and a Subordinate Loan from CityFirst Homes. By negotiating a nominal acquisition price, our development team was able to create long-term value for investors via the limited land cost basis. This transit- oriented green development is less than 1 mile from both the Rhode Island Avenue Metro Station and the New York Avenue Metro Station in the rapidly developing Eckington neighborhood.

- 0 - 30% AMI

Dantes Partners partnered with the Phyllis Wheatley Young Women Christian Association, Inc. to finance and renovate the historic Phyllis Wheatley YWCA in the Shaw neighborhood of Northwest, DC. This $17M project preserved 84 affordable units for the building's population of low-income and vulnerable women. The renovation of the historic building – originally constructed in 1920 – was financed utilizing a combination of 9% LIHTC, DBH grant funds via the District of Columbia DHCD, DCHA capital funds, a PACE Assessment via the District Department of Energy and Environment, HUD factor funds, and deferred developer fee. The project was designed to ensure the building's current residents were able to remain in their homes and not be displaced. Rental rates remained affordable, and the building's pre-renovation residents have not seen their rents increase due to rental subsidy provided via a blended local rent supplement and annual contribution contract.

Washington, DC

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

Development Partners

- Dantes Partners
- Community Builders

Key Facts

- 463 units
- 4,500 GSF of Retail/Community Space
- $200M Total Development Cost

The Park Morton Redevelopment is anticipated to be completed in 3 phases. Each of the phases (Phase 1 – Bruce Monroe; Phase 2 and 3 – Park Morton proper) will be financed utilizing tax-exempt bonds (debt), equity from the sale of LIHTC (4%), New Communities Initiative gap financing, and deferred developer fee.

Leveraging its track record of developing and preserving complex affordable housing communities, Dantes Partners, in partnership with the Community Builders, was selected to redevelop the Park Morton public housing complex in the Park View neighborhood of Washington, DC – a targeted site of the District's the New Communities Initiative. The 462-unit redevelopment will be completed in multiple phases and will minimize resident displacement by following the “Build First” principle; will create a mixed-income community consisting of public housing, affordable and market-rate units; and features 1-for-1 replacement of the existing public housing units. Bruce Monroe, located four (4) blocks away, will serve as the “Build-First” site and the first phase of the redevelopment. Phase 1 will include 273 units, 90 of which will be public housing replacement units. Phases 2 and 3 will be developed on the site of the current Park Morton Public Housing development. The $200 million redevelopment is slated to begin in 2019. The DC Housing Authority is a joint venture development partner and co-owner. The project will be funded by DC Housing Finance Agency, New Communities Initiative Fund – via The Deputy Mayor of Planning and Economic Development and 4% LIHTC equity.

Park Morton will become part of a new mixed-income and mixed-use development along highly trafficked Georgia Avenue Corridor. This includes a proposed new development utilizing a city-owned site to create a mixed-income community that includes replacing all of the existing units at Park Morton, followed by redevelopment of the existing Park Morton Site.

- Vida Senior Centers

Key Facts

- 36 Units
- $8.5 M Total Development Cost
- Completed 2011
- Financed with 9% Tax Credits via the 1602 Exchange Program, Enterprise Green Communities Grant funds, McKinney Act Predevelopment Loan Funds, NIF Predevelopment Grant Funds, and conventional debt
- Active Adult Community for age 55+
- Affordable Units at 50% AMI

VIDA Senior Centers, a local non-profit that has served area seniors for over 40 years, selected Dantes Partners to lead their first housing development. As Development Manager and Co-Owner, Dantes was instrumental in crafting and successfully implementing a complex financing strategy that required utilizing six various capital sources including Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), an Enterprise Green Communities Grant, McKinney Act Predevelopment Loan, a Neighborhood Investment Fund Predevelopment Grant along with conventional debt. Ultimately, Dantes Partners structured a deal to develop 36 affordable housing units with minimal capital outlay from VIDA. The $8,500,000 development was awarded a competitive allocation of 9% LIHTC in August 2009. The state of the art building is now home to seniors (age 55+) earning less than 50% of the Area Median Income.

HUNTINGTON VILLAGE & ORCHARD PARK

3526 Stanton Rd SE & 3627 22nd St SE, Washington, DC

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

Development Partners

- L+M Development Partners
- H Street CDC

Key Facts

- 461 units
- $122M
- Closing Date: July 2023

The acquisition of Huntington Village and Orchard Park apartments will provide a new influx of capital that preserves housing affordability while enabling the property to undertake modernization for community enhancement. The communities are financed utilizing tax-exempt bonds (debt), equity from the sale of Federal (4%) and DC LIHTC, and deferred developer fee. The two communities are made up of 461 existing multifamily residential units located in Southeast DC as part of a larger community, Villages at Parklands. The acquisition plan incorporates much needed site updates and improvements with the intention to extend the useful life of the existing community. The apartment buildings were constructed in the Randle Heights neighborhood during the 1950s and last underwent renovation in 2006. Following the completion of the current renovation, both Huntington Village and Orchard Park will continue to be LIHTC restricted at 60 percent of AMI.

This acquisition and rehabilitation will meet the District of Columbia Government's top priorities by preserving affordable housing in Southeast Washington DC and offering community improvements that will enhance the residential and neighborhood experience, raising the bar for future development in and around the existing neighborhood. With a combined history of nearly 50 years operating in the District of Columbia with the shared goal of creating and preserving affordable housing in the District, Dantes Partners, L+M Development Partners and H Street CDC are uniquely suited to implement the updates and improvements desired by the residents of the Huntington Village and Orchard Park.

BUWA BINITIE | FOUNDER AND CEO

Buwa Binitie is the CEO and Founder of Dumas Collective. Under the development arm Dantes Partners, Mr. Binitie directs the acquisition, development, management, and financial activities of the firm. Mr. Binitie has an extensive tax credit financing experience (LIHTC, NMTC and HTC) and has closed on financing from nearly every public capital source available including HOME, HPTF, NSP, CDBG and NIF. Mr. Binitie maintains a narrow focus on creatively structuring deals that strive to address the need of his clients, community stakeholders as well as various government agency partners. By narrowly focusing on efficiently financing community development transactions, Mr. Binitie has been successful in adding value beyond the numbers. Mr. Binitie's career is underscored by a commitment to creating and preserving affordable and workforce housing. Since founding Dantes Partners, Mr. Binitie and his team have closed over $2.4 billion of unconventional real estate transactions that utilize low-income tax credits, new market tax credits, tax-exempt bonds, and various other forms of alternative financing. These efforts have led to the financing of over 8,000 units of workforce and affordable housing. Mr. Binitie speaks regularly at industry focused events. Recent engagements include sessions with The Minority Resource, African American Real Estate Professionals, Bisnow, DC Building Industry Association, Georgetown University, University of Maryland – Colvin Institute of Real Estate Development and the Howard University Real Estate Club. He serves as a teaching mentor for Capital Impact Partners, Baker Tilly's Equitable Development Initiative Network, Real Estate Executive Council (REEC), LISC and Howard University REEX Summer Program.
